

Financial Assistance Available for Pet Owners

United Animal Nations (UAN) is offering financial assistance grants of up to $500 to help victims of the fires in Southern California care for their pets.

UAN's LifeLine Crisis Relief Grants can help fire victims with expenses for the following:

- Vet care to treat injury or illness caused by the fire
- Temporary boarding
- Transporting the animal to a temporary living situation

For more information or to apply:
www.uan.org • (916) 429-2457

UAN will award grants of up to $500 to qualified applicants as long as funds are available. UAN's LifeLine Crisis Relief Grant Program is supported solely by private donations.

To get eligibility information and apply for a LifeLine Crisis Relief Grant, visit www.uan.org or call (916) 429-2457.

Through its volunteer-driven Emergency Animal Rescue Service (EARS), UAN has provided emergency animal sheltering and disaster relief services during some of the nation's most severe disasters, including Hurricane Katrina in 2005; the Southern California wildfires in 2003; Hurricanes Bret, Dennis and Floyd in 1999; the Midwest floods in 1993; Hurricane Andrew in 1992 and dozens more.

United Animal Nations
Bringing animals out of crisis and into care